

Golf Course Supervisor

UNIT 26

Survey and report on the condition of the environment (golf course)

Overview

The aim of this unit is to provide the learner with the knowledge, understanding and skills required to conduct basic survey work relating to the natural environment on the golf course.

	Learner Outcomes		Assessment Criteria
	The learner will:		The learner can:
1	be able to collect and record data on landscapes and habitats	1.1	clearly establish your role and responsibilities in the survey activity
		1.2	select and use survey techniques in accordance with the survey specification
		1.3	collect data that meets the requirements of the survey specification
		1.4	record all data legibly, fully and in the format specified
		1.5	take the appropriate prompt action where data cannot be obtained in accordance with the specification
		1.6	carry out all survey activities in accordance with relevant health and safety requirements and legislation
		1.7	ensure that the effects of your work and access do not adversely affect the environment
2	be able to report on the condition of landscapes and habitats	2.1	write accurate, legible and complete reports which contain the necessary supporting data
		2.2	respond to requests for further clarification and explanation of reports clearly and accurately

		2.3	report within the required timescale and in accordance with organisational procedure
3	know and understand how to collect and record data on landscapes and habitats	3.1	how to identify hazards and assess risks
		3.2	how to interpret risk assessments
		3.3	your role and responsibilities in relation to survey activity
		3.4	the range of survey techniques available, their advantages and disadvantages and principles of use
		3.5	potential sources of data, their advantages and disadvantages and principles of use
		3.6	effective means of recording the data collected
		3.7	the actions to take if there is difficulty in obtaining data
		3.8	your responsibilities under health and safety and other relevant legislation
		3.9	the environmental value of survey sites, the potential effects of your work on the site
		3.10	actions to take in case of incidental damage to habitat, wildlife and landscape
4	know and understand how to report on the condition of landscapes and habitats	4.1	the required content of the reports
		4.2	ways of presenting information clearly and in a manner appropriate to the intended user
		4.3	the intended purpose of the reports
		4.4	methods of communicating clearly
		4.5	the timescale within which reporting must take place and the reasons for this